

A four-tier metal shelving unit with a black frame. The top two shelves hold several clear glass tumblers on black trays. The second shelf from the top also holds a stack of white mugs. The third shelf contains a large black bowl and a large metal pot. The bottom shelf is empty.

A white-framed window with three panes. The view outside shows a snowy landscape with some structures and a utility pole. The window is set into a wall with vertical wood paneling.

A white, multi-column radiator mounted on the wall below the window. It has a classic design with vertical fins and a central pipe.

A tall, white refrigerator with a top freezer compartment and a larger bottom refrigerator compartment. It is positioned against the wall to the right of the window.
